What to do if you get a call saying your social security number is suspended.

You can also read all previous Social Security OIG fraud notices on our website. Please share this information with your friends and family to help spread information about Social Security scams. We recommend that you report "Social Security" scams or other Social Security scams through the OIG website. We recently announced two landmark civil lawsuits filed by the Department of Justice in the Eastern District of New York, seeking injunctions against five telecommunications companies and their owners. The lawsuits allege that the companies and their owners have knowingly facilitated only scams of government impostors during the years. The Department of Justice issued a press release about the filing of warrants, and made a press call with the U.S. Attorney, Richard Donaghue, Inspector General Gail S. They can use their account to apply for a replacement Social Security card, check the status of an application, estimate future benefits or manage their benefits if they already receive them. Facebook Live: A Do you know that Social Security fraud is the number one type of government fraud impostor reported to the Federal Trade Commission? Ennis, and Chief Inspector of Posts Gary Barksdale. If you receive a suspicious call, text message, or email: Hang up Don't return unknown calls, text messages or emails. All measures taken or services provided by participants are voluntary and offered without expectation of payment. Participants expressly waive any future wage claims against the government, and Social Security will not consider the participation or non-participation of any organization the award of any contract. Other common tactics to legitimize scams cite "plate numbers" of law enforcement officers. If you receive a letter, text message, phone call, or email that you consider suspicious about a suspected problem with your Social Security number, account, or payments, hang up or don't answer.
